

The Trumpet Call

Messages and Reports

February –March 2006

Evangelist Edgar Martin

Things Unsearchable and Unspeakable

“O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways past finding out!”—Rom. 11:33 “His greatness is unsearchable”—Psa. 145:3. “Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now you see Him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory”—1 Pet. 1:8 “Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gift”—2 Cor. 9:15.

Man’s relentless hunger for discovery has driven him to probe the heavens and search the seas. With telescopes and microscopes he has searched outer and inner space. Unsearchable things are being found and unspeakable things are being spoken. Still, one last frontier beckons to man’s pioneer spirit. It is not wilderness landscapes, space exploration, science or technology. It is the knowledge of the Holy! God Himself invites us to explore His greatness; to know Him and His ways; to search out the riches of His grace, wisdom, and knowledge. God extends an invitation to spiritual pioneers to explore the lofty heights of Mt. Zion. He calls us to discover the gold of His godliness, the riches of His grace; to find the hidden manna and honey in the Rock of Ages. He is waiting to be found!

No matter what we discover about God, there is always more! Have you searched the mountain of His mercy? There is more! Have you felt His love flooding over your soul? There is more! Have you beheld the beauty of His holiness? There is more! Have you felt the healing touch of the great physician; communed with Him in the garden of prayer? There is still more! Patriarchs, prophets and apostles have seen visions of His glory and their lives were changed. Even a brief glimpse of God’s glory will grip the soul of man forever. Overwhelmed and awe-struck by His resplendent majesty and the blazing beauty of His holiness man can only fall upon his face in humble worship and repentance.

When we have searched the unsearchable greatness of God and stood in breathless amazement at the wonders of His kingdom, how shall we tell of His glory and this unspeakable joy? Katherine Hankey said, “I love to tell the story of unseen things above, of Jesus and His glory, of Jesus and His love.” Beautiful poetry has been written, but there is more! Beautiful songs have been sung, yet there is more! Excellent books have been written and wonderful sermons preached still there is more! Through plays, dramas and exhortations, men have tried to tell it, but there is more! When all the voices of the earth are silent and men can write no more, there will still be more forever! “No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love Him” (1Cor. 2:9 NLT). “He is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think” (Eph. 3:20).

Searching for God, finding Him and coming to know Him personally is life’s most thrilling prospect. When we search for Him with all of our hearts, we shall surely find Him (Jer. 29:13, 14). We will see Him with the eyes of our souls and we will know Him in our hearts.